Summary	Norman Neuerburg was an American artist, professor, and historian of art and architecture. This collection includes photographs, slides, postcards, and negatives produced and collected by Neuerburg as a study on the history and development of art and architecture spanning from antiquity to more modern 20 th century styles, with a specific focus on religious architecture in Mexico, the United States, and Spain.

Scope and Content Note

A life-long historian, Norman Neuerburg (1926-1997) studied at UCLA, the Institute of Fine Arts of New York University, and as a Fellow at the American Academy in Rome, Italy. Neuerburg was not only a professor in art history, but he also worked as an art preservationist and restorer, as a consultant to the California Mission System, the J. Paul Getty Museum, El Pueblo de Los Angeles and the Santa Barbara Trust for Historical Preservation, as well as a curator at the Southwest Museum. This image collection aided Neuerburg's work at these institutions and focuses on the history of art and architecture throughout the United States, Mexico, and Europe. Included are images of paintings, engravings, sculpture, pottery, furniture, gardens, religious buildings, individual dwellings, royal dwellings, city architecture and planning, museum architecture, and natural and manmade historical sites. The image collection consists of photographs, slides, postcards, and negatives with limited labelling and notes.
